Jason Kruski will be speaking on "Researching Prussian and Pomeranian Genealogy in Poland." He will talk about the diversity of the Pomeranian people, from ethnic Polish, Germans and Swedish. Learn what records are available in both Eastern and Western Prussia and Pomerania that can be found in Poland.

Jason Kruski specializes in Polish-American genealogical research at all levels. He has delivered presentations about how to begin researching Polish American ancestry, advanced Polish-American genealogy, and technological advances in genealogy including DNA.

This meeting will be presented via Zoom.

Be sure to download Jason's handout from the website before the presentation.
